The Know-Nothing organs are very much stressed about the defeat of those "two upright Judges," Marshall and Pryor, and are shedding hypocritical tears over what they are pleased to party." The people have had too much experience with the mendacity and effrontery of this begus American party to be surprised at any of its achievements in impudence, or be deceived by any of the falsehoods with which it would hide its guilt. In the districts of Judges Pryor and Marshall the District Conventions met and were almost unanimously in favor of the nomination of these two gentlemen, having been so instructed by the subordinate councils, but they and their friends begged them not to go through with formality of a nomination-hoping that by a contemptible quibble they could thrust themselves upon the people as "no party candidates." We the undersigned being formerly members of Red River Council, No. 394, in Estill county, Ky., have withdrawn from said Council for the following reasons:

First: Because the national council of the der, at their convention in February last, struck out the 12th section of the June platform of 1855. and refused to endorse the wholesome doctrine ::AUGUST 12, 1856.

Second: Because the present platform affords no guarantee to the South for the protection of her constitutional rights.

Third: Because the action of the Northern members of the Order in Congress, in the eleccall the "proscriptive practices of the Democratic and by their subsequent votes upon various occasions, shows that the Order at the North is completely abolitionized.

Fourth: Because one of the prominent objects of the Order, when we became members of it, was to put down corruption in the elections, by stopping the buying of votes, treating, &c., and it has now so changed its course, in that respect, contests for Judges, &c., the people are very that it is their boast that they can and will treat more freely and bny more votes than any other party can, and their practice at this time fully proves that such is their intention.

Fifth: Because they at first promised to purify the ballot-box, and the only evidence we can see of such parification is by the burning of the ballot-boxes at Cincinnati, and by keeping naturalized foreigners from voting, by beating, bruising, and killing them, as they did in Louisville and other cities throughout the country.

The New York Citizens publishes a long letter from the Irish Patriot, John Mitchell. on the all absorbing political topic of the day. It is written in his best vein and discusses in his eccentric style the claims of the various candidates for the Presidency. The following extract will serve to define his position:

Fellow-citizens, there was once in the middle ges a political society in Europe, and especially a Germany, called the Illuminati; one of its pracees was that when an individual became partially rfully initiated, and afterward disclosed any o s secrets, two alternatives were offered to the wretched victim-a cord and a dagger were secretly aced by his bed-side, and he might either hang meelf or put himself to death with the dagger; f Le chose neither of the delightful alternatives, his nearest relation, even his own brother, if a member of the society, was bound to take his life. Fellow-citizens, all secret political societies are alke. In this age, since letters and the pressure come about, the cord and the dagger are no longer used, a venal press affords a far more potent weap-on and more sindictive punishment. By falschood, by calumny, by livel and detraction, not only may be heart of the victim himself be torn in pieces, but the feelings of his wife, his mother, his children of his whole family are reached and lacerated for rengeancesake. Fellow-citizens, such persecution myself have undergone, and you know it.

I could not reconcile it to my conscience to become a K now-botting, because I believed the come a K now-Nothing, because I believed the principles of the party to be artagenistic to civil and religious liberty, and dangerous to our republican institutions. Throwing out a banner inscribed, "Americaus only shall rule America," they appeared to me like the vailed Prophet of Khorassan, who, concealing his horrible visage behind a silver vall, erected shrines.

I could not become a Know-Nothing—"where shall I go?" Fellow citizens, I turned my thoughts back to the old party of my father, I knew its principles to be true; some of its practices had been bad; but I believed its principles, once true, they must always be so, for truth cannot die. They told me that the party was dead, but I believed that it was only after the death that the resurrection could come. In concept with record "league with Death," and ferverently trusts there is no "covenant with Hell." Of the dangerous designs of the Pope of Rome he knows little or nothing; but with the intrigues of the British government, he is, by late experience, thoroughly familiar. From thence only he apprehends the foreign influence against which General Washington so earneetly warned his countrymen: and if he be elected, he will certainly resist with all his might all interference with the action and progress of the Republic, either by greedy and fanatical factions from within, or by the common enemy from without—I mean of course the British government, my enemy, his enemy, our enemy, your enemy, their enemy, and the enemy of mankind

Amongst the three candidates then the equal presenting candidates for the Presidency, and Vice Presidency, selected for the first time from the free States alone, with the avowed purpose of electing these candidates by the sufrages of one part of the Union only to rule over the whole United States.—Can it be possible that those who are engaged in ren would submit to be governed by such a Chief blagistrate! [Cheers.] Would be be required to follow the rule prescribed by those who elected him in making his appointments? If a man living South of Mason and Dixon's line, be not worthy to he President or Vice President, would it be proper to select one from the same quarter as one of his Cab-inet Council, or to represent the nation in a foreign country? Or, indeed, to collect the revenue or ad-minister the laws of the United States? If not, what new rule is the President to adopt in selecting which he had reflected so much honor. Fellow-citizens, this Is my race—these were my people—and with their memories always present and clustering around me, I appeal to you to know whether it is possible for me to be false or insincere.

Early In last year, fellow-citizens, it was apparent to all men that the Whig party, as an organized party, was gone. The seeds of its fall were sown in 1840, when the plume of a military chieftain was permitted to dazzie men's eyes. But the smooth question. I should usepte my word that Mr. Fillmore says. As surely as the sun shines the country is indanger. I have a high respect for Mr. Fillmore, and If he stood precisely where he did In 1850 I should prefer him to any man for the Presidency. Even as it is, personally I prefer him to either of the other candidates. But, fellow citizens, there is no living man whom I love so well as I do that great noise of States—my country—for which my father minimum that the state of the country is indanger. I have a high respect for Mr. Fillmore says. As surely as the sun shines the country is indanger. I have a high respect for Mr. Fillmore, and If he stood precisely where he did In 1850 I should prefer him to any man for the Presidency. Even as it is, personally I prefer him to any man for the Presidency. Even as it is, personally I prefer him to any man for the Presidency. in 1848, when adopting the doctrine that availability and success were rather to be looked to than right, in lien of that noble idea that it was better to be right than be President, the Convention of Philadelphia set the seal upon the fate of the party terusing to re-assert a platform of Which relies it was to believe that the probabilities are the lies it that the Union is in imminent danger; leads us to believe that the probabilities are the life. Refusing to re-assert a platform of Whig principles, it selected General Taylor as its candidate for the Presidency upon the single idea of his availability. The hand-writing was as plainly npon the wall as at Belshazzar's feast. The Whig party broken up, disorganized, and apparently hopelessly so, Old-line Whigs began to ask themselves the question which once the immortal Sage of Marsh-field propounded himself, "Where am I to go?" Runors came to us of a new party which was said already to have attained yast strength, even while of human liberty—save the Union. I have no faith of human liberty—save the Union. I have no faith many doubted its very existence. Secret and in the sincerity of that man who, with his mouth full of protestations of love for his country, and for the sproposes were said to be the introduction a of.

I presented myself for admission late the color. is the most likely to succeed according to our best light, Mr. Fillmore or Mr. Buchanan?

Fellow citizens, I have made my choice. Looking over the whole country, not confining my view to my own State, or to my own locality—not suffering myseif to be influenced by partizan journals or by partizan orators—I am deliberately convinced that Mr. Filimore has not the least chance of success, and that if it be at all possible to defeat Fremont, oppose for all offices of honor, trust or profit in the gift of the people, all foreigners and Roman Catholics?

Fellow-citizens, I am not telling you untruths. I declareto you upon my honor, and it the presence of God, that I believe these to be substantially the questions which were proposed to me; and I wo for Buchanan. I hold in my hand authentic annual that a those members of the succession and I will show you two for Buchanan. I hold in my hand authentic annual that a those members of the succession and I will show you have a these members of the succession and that if it be at all possible to defeat Fremont, the Democratic party, with their candidates, Buchanan and Breckinridge, with the radidates, Buchanan and Breckinridge, with the aid of the Union loving Oid-Line Whigs, is the only party which has the land of the Union loving Oid-Line Whigs, is the only party which has the land of the Union loving Oid-Line Whigs, is the only party which has the land of the Union loving Oid-Line Whigs, is the only party which has the land of the Union loving Oid-Line Whigs, is the only party which has the land of the Union loving Oid-Line Whigs, is the only party which has the land of the Union loving Oid-Line Whigs, is the only party which has the land of the Union loving Oid-Line Whigs, is the only party which has the land of the Union loving Oid-Line Whigs, is the only party which has the land of the Union loving Oid-Line Whigs, is the only party which has the land of the Union loving Oid-Line Whigs, is the only party which has the land of the Union loving Oid-Line Whigs, is the only party which has the land of the Union loving Oid-Line Whigs, is the only party which has the land of the Union loving Oid-Line Whigs, is the only party which has the land of the Union loving Oid-Line Whigs, is the only party which has the land of the Union loving Oid-Line Whigs, is the only party which has the land of the Union loving Oid-Line Whigs, is the only party which land of the Union loving Oid-Line Whigs, is the only party whic results of the last elections, from which alone we can form reliable conclusions. From these it appears that, while twelve of the Southern States are almost certain for Buchanan, Mr. Fillmore, has, at the best, but doubtful chances for the remaining three. Thus, Mr. Buchanan presents himself with almost the whole South in solid spikers. aimost the whole South in solid phalanx. At the North his count of Sixtep is to the full as good, and in my opinion much better, than Mr. Filimore's, besides, we Whigs know well, and to our cost, the wonderful tenacity of the Democratic party—how it has held together and had success when we most nfidently expected its defeat. I know, fellow-Whigs, how difficult it is for you to get rid of old prejndices, either of attraction or of repulsion. I have not forgotten, however, that pon a question of mere availability, the Whigs of contacky were able, through their delegates at Philadelphia in 1845, to give up their idol, the man whom they loved, and who loved tuem, and who had done so much for the honor of Kentucky, that whenever Kentucky's name was mentioned, at home or abroad, his name at once arose before the nd's eye, and whenever his name was mentloned Keutucky appeared. Fellow-Whigs, do you love Mr. Fillmore so much letter than yon did Henry Clay that you cange, make the same sacrifice of your predilections for the one that you did for the other upon much less occasion?

But, fellow-citizens, I am often asked how it is But, fellow-citizens, I am often asked how it is possible that I, my father's son, can reconcile it to myself to vote for Mr. Buchanan, who, they say, had so seriously injured and wronged my father by originating, or, if not originating, by being complicated with and mixed np in some way or other with that vile old charge of bargalu and intrigue betwirt him and Mr. Adams. In nine cases out of ten the marging who in my presence refer to that betwirt him and Mr. Adams. In nine cases out of ten the persons who in my presence refer to that affair, know absolutely nothing about it, and when I refer them to actherite records they are too much prejudiced, and love to be prejudiced to well, to allow them to make the most ordinary feamination. I have fully and carefully studied the whole history of the bargain and intrigue slander, with the express purpose of ascertaining the truth or the falsity of the charges against Mr. Buchanan, and the result of my resparch has been, that as an and the result of my research has been, that as an honest man I am bound to acquithim of having had any part in the original slander, or of having done my father any wrong, when he was summoned be-fore the public as a witness against him. I am bound to acquit him upon the testimony of the very person to whom he is sald to have wronged and slandered, and however little partisan editors and partisan orators may esteem the evidence of my father himself, it is abundantly sufficient for me, his son. The charge of bargain and intrigue was first made by Mr. Kremer, in an anonymous letter, subsequently reiterated by Carter Beverly, In his celebrated Fayettville letter, and finally asserted by General Jackson, who assumed the responsibility of it, and to prove its truth summoned Mr. Buchanan hefore the public as his only witness. Mr. Buchanan promptly responded to the call for his testimony. Did he sustain Mr. Kremer, Carter his testimony. Did he sustain Mr. Kremer, Carter Beverly and General Jackson, the last of whom had summoned him? On the contrary, his evidence was clear and distinct, and fully exculpated Mr. Vas great and distinct, and fully exempated Mr. Clay from the charges made against him. So Mr. Clay regarded it himself, and he, the person accused, testified, publicly and privately, that he considered Mr. Bachanan had done him no wrong. I read to you from Colton's Private Correspondence of my father, his private letter to his old friend. Judge Brooke of Virginia—the friend of friend, Judge Brooke, of Virginia—the friend of his life-time—a letter never intended for publication, dated August, 1827, in which, referring to Mr. Ruchanan's Lancaster letter, he says. "Leculd not desire a stronger statement." Again in public, upon the occasion of a dinner given him in Washington on his retirement from the office of Secreington on his retirement from the office of Secre tary of State, he said:

Washington Correspondence. WASHINGTON, July 25. Mr. Jewett, of Kentucky, is now (7 P. M.) ad dressing the House upon "general politics;" Mr. Haven in the chair. The proper, legitimate question in committee is the appropriation bill for the support of the army. Mr. Jewett, who is universally confessed to be one of the most able and eloqueut men of his State, and also one of the most shrewd and effective members of the Democratic party in the House, while following in the wake of all preceding speakers, is making a most effective speech, has not yet made the most remote allusion to the main question before the committee—the army bill. It is not expected by anybody that he or any other speaker, during these evening sessions, should make any allusion to the particular measure properly to be under consideration. All speakers have a general license to speak just what they please. Call these addresses to "Buncombe," to a special constituency, to the country-there is not a speaker among them all who has the slightest hope or exectation of convincing the judgment of any po-itical opponent in the House. Opponents listen litical opponent in the House. Opponents listen with marked attention, but only to reply and controvert. The speeches are for constituencles and the country. They must, however, be orally delivered before they can be printed with the sauction of the House, In the Senate they are one by one passing bills for the purposes of iternal improvement. President Pierce has said that, while he should feel constitutionally compelled to veto a general om-uibus bill in this behalf, would yet sanction any national work if presenting to him by itself. The two bills lately returned by the Executive, to-wit: the St. Clair flats and the Mississippi bills, have been passed by the requisite majority of twothirds of both nouses of Congress and are now laws. Within the present week several bills have passed the Senate providing for the im-provement and construction of harbors, &c.

The St. Louis Republican of the 8th contains a table giving the election returns for Governor in thirty counties. They are as follows: POLK. BENTON. ...2.781 6,365 ... 390 671

It will be seen that Benton gets a very diminutive vote ontside of St. Louis city. In the above speak in Springfield on Saturday, and in Bards- counties Ewing has one thousand seven hundred majority. Much the largest portion of the State remains to be heard from. Upon comparison of the above vote between and liquors this (Tuesday) morning at 10 o'clock, Ewing and Polk with that of the last Gubennatorial election in Missourl iu 1852, when Price, Democrat, beat Winston, Whig, nearly fourteen thousand votes, we find that Ewing has gained about four thousand, nearly three thousand five oundred of which he gained in St. Louis county. Ewing has got nearly ten thousand to gain in the counties to be heard from, some seventy in time to "fit up" steamers with fine earpots, oil- number, in order to be elected. As he has gained, thus far, very little outside of Winston's vote in 1851, we think there is a good chance of Polk's election, notwithstanding the thousands of Democratic vates which have been thrown away on

> Since writing the above, we are in receipt of St. Louis papers of the 9th, which give fifteen more counties, which being added to the vote above, increases Polk's vote to 25, 256; Ewing's to 27,287, and Benton's to 14,216. It will be seen that Ewing still leads Polk about two thousand; but that will be very easily overcome in the remaining counties, if the anticipations of Polk's friends are realized.

Two Electorial Tickets-Fillmore in Penn SYLVANIA,-The Fillmore men in Pennsylvania have rejected in their State Convention, by a vote of seventy-two to eighteen, the proposal of the Black-Republicans to form a fusion electoral ticket. Ingersoll and Andrew Stewart. l'orty-three counties were represented in their Convention, The defeat of the Fremouters in this matter of a fusion electorial ticket, is to them a staggering blow.

Doctor Janies Williams:—For several years past, I have been hable to attacks of Dyspepsia but never have I been nore distrossingly afflicted with its symptoms, than within the last few weeks. Indigestion, nervous irritability, despondency, a sense of weight in the stemach, and severe pains in the left side, rendering me, for the time being, truly wretched. Fortunately, I was recommended by a friend to try your Elixir. I did so, and in tess than two weeks, indigestion ceased, pain and nervous depression left me, and appetite, with mental and bodily health, were fully restored. To me the cure seemed almost mirracipous, and my object in writing to you is—a hope that other persons suffering the miseries of Dyspepsia will avail themsels so of your efficient remedy.
